FOR PRESIDENT,

JAMES A. GARFIELD, of Ohio.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT. CHESTER A. ARTHUR,

of New York. DEMOCRATIC "SPECIAL" INFORMA-

TION. figures as received by telegraph are published in the same column with the "spe-"cial," as follows: FARNHAM (rep.), 48,823; PHELPS (dem.), 20,717; HEATH (green-fell, but he fell in love with freedmen, muback), 1,530. FARNHAM'S majority over all, 26,576. In 1876 FAIRBANKS (rep.) had a majority of 23,672. So the republican gain over the vote of 1876 is 2,904.

In this report there are twenty towns to hear from, and the same relative gain in them would give the republicans a majority of 26.936 over all. Comparing the republican vote with the demogratic vote only the majority against the democrats is 28,566, as against 23,838 for HAYES in 1876-a gain of 4,728. Below is a table of the votes since 1870:

Vermont. It says:

It is not quite correct to say of the recent election that "the Dutch have taken Holiand." The fact that the republicans have fully held their own in Vermont proves that Hancock has nothing to rely on but the proper strength of the democratic party, and that his chances of capturing republican voters are no better than were GREELEV's in 1872.

Let us see! How many states did GREELEY carry? Georgia, Kentucky, Maryland, Missouri, Tennessee and Texas. Total electoral votes, 80.

VERMONT has spoken; Maine will follow Deafness, Noises in the Head, Imsuit next week in equally decided terms. The republican forces can now be safely withdrawn from New England except, perhaps, a corps of observation in Connecticut. The fighting men may now go to Indiana. The national republican committee looked first to the outposts. It has cared for Maine and Vermont. It is now fully equipped for Indiana, the one possible northern democratic state, the state of the golden circle and the copperhead. The campaign there has been delayed on the principle of going first for the first thing you want; but it is open country now, the game season is on, and Indiana will be stumped and stormed until it is brought into the republican phalanx. All is clear. As to Ohio, also an October state, no anxiety is felt.

MINOR TOPICS.

There are few, if any, senators who can accomplish for their states more in less time than Senator Hamily, and it is to be hoped for the honor and good of the republican party of Maine, as well as that of the nation, that he may be returned to his eld place in the senate. I would dispose of a score or two of the most conspictious of the rebel leaders, not for vengcance, but to satisfy public justice and make expensive the enterprise of treason for all time to come. I wish we could haug them to the sky that hends over us, so that all the COLONEL JOHN H. A SOUTHERN editor apologizing for General Hancock having aided in killing so many southern democrats during the war says "he was a hired soldler and had to obey orders." His Louisiana order looks like it.

COLONEL C. W. HOOKER, the able and energetle acting secretary of the republican national committee, was elected to the legislature in Vermont Tuesday. We would not be at all surprised if it were recognized that he had " the making " of a good speaker of the Vermont assembly.
